

Termine

[München] Konferenz ACADEMIC FREEDOM and POLITICS

8. Dezember 2017 – 9. Dezember 2017, 09:00 – 17:00 Uhr

Veranstalter: Eine Veranstaltung der Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität in Kooperation mit der Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung und der GEW.

Ort: Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität - Hauptgebäude, Geschwister-Scholl-Platz 1, 80539 München

Die Konferenzsprache ist Englisch. The conference language is English.

Academic Freedom and Politics, a conference and volume focused on the current situation of universities and the educational system generally seeking to find ways for educational institutions, their networks, and allies to analyze and oppose the repressive policies and practices at schools and universities. The repressive policy in Turkey is in the foreground.

Friday, December 8, 2017

09.00 – 10.00 Registration

10.00 – 10.30 Opening

Halis Yıldırım (Munich, Organizing Committee)

Latife Akyüz (Frankfurt am Main, Academics for Peace)

Reiner Keller (Augsburg, German Sociological Association / DGS)

10.30 – 12.30 First Session: Academic Freedom in Turkey

Eylem Çamuroğlu Çığ (Bayreuth): The Meaning of Academic Freedom After the Peace Petition

Günes Gümüş (Ankara, Turkey): Purge at University as a Means of Repression in Turkey

Mehmet Ugur (London, England): State Tutelage and the Defense of Academic Freedom in Turkish Higher Education: What Role for International Solidarity?

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch Break

13.30 – 15.00 Second Session: Academic Freedom and Politics

Anna Hollendung (Bremen): Arendt on Academic Freedom and Plurality

Anna M. Kola (Toruń, Poland): The Citizens of Academia as Polish Form of Academic Revolution

Clyde Forsberg (Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan): The Problem of Neo-Ottomanism (Bonapartism) and 'Academic Freedom' in the New Turkey

15.00 – 15.30 Coffee Break

15.30 – 17.00 Third Session: Academic Freedom in the World

Anita Rampal (New Delhi, India): Transformative Education for Freedom, Empathy and Agency

Martin Vialon (Oldenburg): Education, Enlightenment and Liberation as a Universal Duty

Michael Reder (Munich): Research as Radical (Social) Criticism. Comments on Political Solidarity and Academic Freedom

15.30 – 17.00 Fourth Session (Parallel Session): Trade Unions in Academia

Andreas Keller (Frankfurt am Main, GEW)

Rob Copeland (London, University and College Union) (requested)

Sakine Esen Yilmaz (Cologne, Egitim-Sen)

17.00 – 17.30 Coffee Break

17.30 – 19.00 Fifth Session: Precarization in Academia

Tebessüm Yılmaz (Berlin): Living in Limbo: Being a Doctoral Student in Times of Oppression

Ekrem Düzen (Bielefeld): The Re-politicization of Universities in Turkey on the Axis of "Native and National" Culture

Serdar M. Değirmencioğlu (Brussels, Belgium): The Assault on Academic Freedom and the Failures of Mainstream Scholarship

17.30 – 19.00 Sixth Session (Parallel Session): Solidarity with the Persecuted Academics and the Role of Political Foundations

Murat Çakır Frankfurt am Main (RLS) (requested)

Nina Locher Berlin (Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung)

Saturday, December 9, 2017

09.00 – 10.30 Seventh Session: Academic Freedom and Society

Mustafa Şener (Bamberg): Neoliberalizm, Akademik Özgürlük ve Sendikal Mücadele: Mersin Üniversitesi Örneği

Andreas Zick (Bielefeld): Right-Wing Populism, the New Right and Their Relationship to Science

Stephan Lessenich (Munich): Matters that Matter: Critical Sociology and Academic Practice

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee Break

11.00 – 12.00 Keynote: Tariq Ali (London, England)

12.00 – 13.00 Lunch

13.00 – 14.30 Eight Session: The Armenians in Turkey - 1915 and Its Aftermath

Talin Suciyan (Munich): The Armenians in Turkey: A Century of Survival

Mihran Dabag (Bochum): Das Leben mit dem Genozid

Nazan Maksudyan (Berlin): Auctions of Sorrows: Armenian Genocide Survivors, Philanthropy, and Cinema

Melanie Altanian (Bern, Switzerland) & Jeanette Ehrmann (Giessen): From Genocidal Collaboration to Relational Recognition: The Past and the Present of the Armenian Genocide

14.30- 15.00 Coffee Break

14.30 – 16.00 Ninth Session: Solidarity Academies

Zeynep Kıvılcım (Berlin): We are the Crisis of Neoliberal University and Proud of It: Solidarity Academy in Germany

Ahmet Kerim Gültekin (Dersim, Turkey) - (Via Internet): Alternatif Akademi Tartışmaları İçin Öneriler Dersim Dayanışma Akademisi Deneyimi

Kamuran Akın: Looking at Solidarity Academies as Practices of Commons

Pinar Emine Donmez & Anil Duman (Budapest, Hungary): Rethinking Academic Freedom in The Era Of Neoliberalism: Reflections from Hungary and Turkey

14.30 – 16.00 Tenth Session (Parallel Session): The Kurdish Issue

Ismail Küpeli (Bochum): The 'Kurdish Question' From the Perspective of the Turkish State
Historiography

Giuseppe Acconcia (Milan, Italia): The Kurds of Syria: From Popular Committees to Fighting Units
Mustafa Polat (Berlin) / Zeynep Kivilcim: The Kurdish University Students and the Peace Process

16. 00 – 16.30 Coffee Break

16.30 – 17.30 FORUM: The Future of Academic Freedom

16.30 – 16.50 Warren Montag (Via Internet) After the Hannah Arendt Center Controversy: How can
We Effectively Engage with Racism and the University Today

Organization: Department of Sociology at the LMU

Website: http://bayern.rosalux.de/veranstaltung/es_detail/MECOJ/academic-freedom-and-politics/

Zurück

QUELLE: HTTP://WWW.DIE-LINKE-BAYERN.DE/NC/TERMINE/EREIGNIS/EINZEL/TERMIN/MUENCHEN-KONFERENZ-ACADEMIC-FREEDOM-AND-POLITICS/